DECEMBER 17th SPEAKER AT SANTA CLARA EAA MEETING - Dr. J. David Powell, Stanford University
AUTOMOTIVE TECHNOLOGIES - WHAT'S IN THE FUTURE?

Evolution of automobiles over the next 50 years will be strongly influenced by fuel availability and air pollution. Prof. Powell will discuss the various alternatives to the propulsion technology in use today, exploring the pros and cons of each of the options. He will focus primarily on energy sources, efficiency, and pollution characteristics.

J. David Powell is a Prof. at Stanford University with a joint appointment in the departments of Mechanical Engineering and Aeronautics and Astronautics.
